

Grace in Action Pace Chart – 2016-2017

In the Grace in Action book, every child follows the same schedule. Please work with your child to complete the Bible reading, answer the questions, and memorize the verse(s) for that week. The groups will work though the sections together on Sunday evening. See the back of this page for more info.

FAQ for Grace in Action

What is the StartZone?

This booklet is an introduction to T&T and it is completed before the child received his/her book.

Why are all the kids working together rather than at their own pace like in Sparks?

Awana is starting to employ an “All Together” method, meaning all the kids work together on the same section during small group time. This year, T&T Grace in Action will be using the “All Together” method for the first time.

How should we prepare for Awana each week?

Ideally, each child will come prepared with the short Bible study completed and the verse memorized. The group will be working through these items together. If your child isn't prepared, it's fine! Everyone is welcome to come and learn together.

What if my child needs challenged more than 1 section per week?

Children who want to move at a faster pace can work ahead. However, the group will still work through the scheduled section during Awana. If your child wants more challenge, encourage him/her to complete the gold and silver extra credit sections at the back of their books. These sections challenge the kids to drill down deeper into the week's biblical topic. Kids who complete the gold and silver sections will do 26 extra Bible studies and learn 104 extra verses. The gold and silver sections are optional.

How often are awards given out?

Kids receive an award after completing every 4 sections.

What if my child gets behind or misses Awana occasionally?

Kids who get behind can catch up during any Awana night. Leaders arrive at 5:45 and can listen to verses prior to Awana. We also have special “catch up” nights to help kids stay on pace. If a child gets behind, let us know and we'll work out a way to help him or her catch up. We'll work with you!

What if my child starts the Awana year late?

Kids who join after September will complete the Start Zone and then jump into the schedule. For example, if the child starts Awana on October 30, he/she will begin with section 2.2.

I have questions. What do I do?

Let us know what questions you have. You can email us at Awana@NorthviewChurch.org or call Melissa at 719-210-5970. This method is new to us too, so if we don't know the answers to your questions, we'll research the topic and let you know what we find out.
